Good Afternoon Mr. Geragosian and Mr. Miner,

Please find attached a memorandum responsive to Yvonne Addo's memorandum of November 6, 2025.

While the $230,000 in question may be small by State spending standards, it is the tip of a significantly larger iceberg. Since 2020, OPM has dispersed over $153 million in the Local Capital Improvement Program known as LoCIP.

Year	Number	Total $	Average
2020	282	47,435,383.44	168,210.58
2021	189	21,560,601.12	114,077.25
2022	190	30,533,190.80	160,701.00
2023	244	28,172,395.41	115,460.64
2024	142	19,198,674.36	135,201.93
2025	87	6,841,737.57	78,640.66
Total	1134	153,741,982.70	135,574.94

It appears that OPM may be misinterpreting CGS § 7-536(i) to nullify important portions of that statute that this provision is not intended to eliminate.

If the case in question is not isolated, this misinterpretation could invite widespread misallocation, abuse, and maladministration.

The attached memorandum responds directly to OPM's interpretation of Conn. Gen. Stat. § 7-536(i), as stated by Yvonne Addo.

Thank you for considering this case and its broader ramifications. I welcome any questions.

Respectfully,
Kirk Carr

Amigos:

Here is the latest with OPM and the State auditors on the ACT roof. OPM will try as they might to sweep this under the rug. But so far, OPM has omitted this from the official list of approved projects, even though the 45-day response deadline expired on October 11.

Stay tuned.

Cheers,

Kirk
